

CHARITY: Prizes for children who raised money for Middle East

٢٥٥

22/11/01

PRIZES: Children who dug deep to raise money for young victims of poverty and famine in the Middle East have been rewarded with prizes. The Bradford-based Human Relief Foundation collected £4,500 from 15 schools in the district with its appeal in the run-up to last Christmas. The money will help children in Iraq and Palestine.